A Basic Definition of the things we are to do to Minister to One Another

Love One Another - this speaks of the kind of love that Christ showed by His self-sacrifice and obedience to God; it is primarily a decision of the will rather than a feeling

Accept (Receive)One Another - to take to oneself, signifying a special interest or welcome on the part of the receiver

Admonish One Another - instruction which is primarily a warning against things that are wrong

Bear One Another's Burdens - to bear the weights that are pressing down on another

Bear With One Another - to hold up against a thing and so to bear with, be patient, endure

Build Up One Another - to promote the spiritual growth and development of character of believers, by example and by teaching, suggesting such spiritual progress is the result of patient labor

Care for One Another - to have a great concern for others which causes us to share ourselves with one another

Encourage One Another - to come to the side of another and provide comfort, encouragement or exhortation

Be Encouraged Together Through Faith In One Another - to encourage one another by the mutual faith that we have in one another as well as our joint faith in the Lord

Have Compassion One of Another - to suffer with another

Confess Your Sins to One Another - to confess forth openly and freely

Be Devoted to One Another - to have a tender love for one another such as the love of parents for children and children for parents

Fellowship With One Another - the sharing together of our lives with one another

Forgive One another - to bestow a favor unconditionally so that things from the past are not held against the other person; the failure to forgive one another is one of the greatest hindrances to spiritual growth and development

Seek What Is Good For One Another And For All Men - that which is good in its character and beneficial in its effect

Greet One Another - to greet, welcome and make feel comfortable

Be Hospitable to One Another - to show love to a guest

Clothe Yourselves With Humility Toward One Another - to make yourself low of mind and show respect to one another

Be Kind to One Another - to be good, pleasant and gracious even to those who are ungrateful and evil

Be Members One of Another - members are parts of the body and we are called to have the same relationship to each other as parts of the body

Be of the Same Mind One to Another - to have the same concern and regard for one another that we have for ourselves

Be at Peace With One Another - to bring to peace, to reconcile or to keep peace

Pray for One Another - keep continuing to pray for one another

Regard One Another as More Important Than Self - esteem one another

Serve One Another as a Slave - to serve as a slave, viewed as a relationship to his master

Employ Your Gift in Serving One Another - to be a servant, attendant, to serve, wait upon, minister, viewed as a relationship to his work
